PLATFORM OF THE AMERICAN PARTS tate of "is issippi

We advocate such a modification of the natu ralization laws, as will remedy the existing evils growing out of the same, or in case the purity of the elective franchise cannot otherwise be preserved, then we advocate their total repeal.

We advocate the passage of a stringent law by the proper authorities, to prevent the immi-gration hither of foreigners, who are either paus ample proof of the absolute necessity of such a party. He who reads it must be convinced pers or criminals.

We shall vigorously maintain and defend the vested rights of all persons, whether they be na tive or foreign born

We believe that America should be governed by Americana, effecting the same through the ballot-box alone, the great and legitimate instrument of all political reform in our country.

We oppose and protest against all abridgement of religious liberty, holding it as a cardinal maxim, that religious faith is a question between each individual and his God, and that the Bible is the great fountain and depository of the true religious doctrines of this country.

We will maintain and defend the Constitution the United States as it is, the Union as it was intended by our fathers, and the rights of the States, without diminution; insisting upon, and demanding a faithful performance by the General Government, of all the duties enjoined upon it by that Constitution.

We war with no party as such, but oppose all who oppose us in these great American doctrines.

If no preference should be given to a man o The sebscriber also manufactures the above account of the place of his, on what principle can one give preference to the place of his birth over the birth places of others. If we may not prefer our countrymen, because they are our country men, how can we prefer our country because it is our country? If the place of birth be so unimportant, why should one prefer his birth place to but to dedicate myse'f to sterna' opposition to any foreign land? Must we not be as solicitous for the prosperity of England, Ireland, France. Italy, Holland, and every other country, as for the prosperity of America? There have indeed, beeen some philosophers who advocated this doctrine, saying that patriotism is a narrow, contracted, and illiberal sentiment, and that only philanthropy, universal philanthropy, is worthy of an enlarged and liberal mind. The anti-American party, to be consistent with themselves, must endorse the doctrine of this school of philanthro-

The only child, a daughter, of Judge S., recently of Florids, and passing this, his first summer here—the child too the fever, and the Judge having faith in House pathy, sent for a physician of that practice; the symptoms of the child were considered critical, the Doctor, after a lministering his remedies, directed that when the shild's skin became dry from fever she should be taken out of bed and immersed in a bath of o'd water, and this was done six times in one nig -the child of course delighted with the luxuri s of a cold bath when in a feverish state. She is rapidly recovering, and her friends believe that this mode of treatment has saved her life. This mode of treatment, so different from what has been considered necessary to the salvation of a patient, (muffling up in blank-ets, and that the least agitation to the patient would be fatal to its existence,) required the ex-ercise of a great amount of faith in this mode of practice to suffer it to be tried upon an only child The physicians of the Charity Hospital seem to be succeeding well from the fact that they have discharged the past week 132 cured.
